

Parents Supporting Social Skills

Ever worry about your child's ability to make friends? Do you worry about how your child interacts with peers? Do you want to help your child develop skills to be able to develop friendships, establish safe boundaries, navigate social media, and talk to adults in a functional way? If so, you should join us for the Parents Supporting Social Skills group focused on strategies parents can utilize to support and facilitate the development of social skills with their children. Topics will be determined based on the feedback from participants.

Who: Adoptive parents, biological parents, and foster parents

When: Tuesday nights, 2/12, 2/26, 3/5, 3/12, 3/26, 4/9, and 4/23

Time: 5:30pm to 7:00pm

Where: 318 Susan Drive, Normal, IL 61761

The Parents Supporting Social Skills group will be facilitated by Becky Largent who is a licensed clinical social worker, registered nurse, and adoptive parent. Becky brings a unique perspective to The Baby Fold, having worked with children and families in foster care and trained as a psychiatric registered nurse.
