

Nancy A. Mason Society

(Recognizing donors who have included The Baby Fold in their estate planning)

The Baby Fold began through the generosity of Nancy Mason, who donated her residence to the Methodist Episcopal Deaconess Society in 1899. Her gift became the first home for The Baby Fold in 1902. Donors who become members of the Nancy A. Mason Society can be certain that future generations of children and families will benefit from their foresight and generosity. Names are being added continually.
