Hammitt Elementary School Visitors and University Volunteers

Visitors:

Visitors must enter the building through the front doors and sign in at the office. Visitors should wear a name tag at all times when in the building.

University Volunteers:

Hammitt Elementary School works closely with Illinois State University to provide university students with hands-on experience. University students are placed in classrooms depending on their major and program needs. University students observe, instruct, and plan under the lead teacher's supervision. University students are provided with a concrete set of guidelines prior to beginning their field experience at Hammitt Elementary.
